A LETTER FOR LIFE

1 NIV

James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,
To the twelve tribes scattered among the nations:

Greetings.

Trials and Temptations
1 Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, because whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. 4 Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. 5 If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. 6 But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. 7 That person

2 My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ must not show favoritism. 2 Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in filthy old clothes also comes in. 3 If you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say, "Here's a good seat for you," but say to the poor man, "You stand there" or "Sit on the floor by my feet," 4 have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my dear brothers and sisters: Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him? 6 But you are exploiting the poor. Is it not the rich who are exploiting you? Are they not the ones who are dragging you into court? 7 Are they not the ones who are blaspheming the noble name of him to whom you belong?

8 If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, love your neighbor as yourself, (a) you are doing well. But if you show favoritism, you sin and are committing the law that says, "Love your neighbor as yourself." 10 For whoever shows favoritism is a sinner. 11 You are sinning if you love yourselves but hate your brothers. If you do not love your brothers whom you see, how can you love God whom you do not see?

3 Not many of you are fellow believers, because you will be judged according to what you have done. 4 Or, if you are so full of faults, how can you love your brothers? If you do not love your brothers whom you see, how can you love God whom you do not see?

5 When we put our love for God first, we can love our fellow believers. 6 Or, if you are so full of faults, how can you love your brothers? If you do not love your brothers whom you see, how can you love God whom you do not see?

7 A man who loves his fellow believers loves himself. 8 If you do not love your brothers whom you see, how can you love God whom you do not see?
